

Good morning Andrew,

In one month it will be two years together. If I told you how many ways you have helped me to change my life; I would talk too much...yes we are still working on that!

I spent the week-end with my family and again my Son said, "Mom you have changed so much, you're not nearly as crazy as you used to be." Andrew, I know that change is because of you and the work we have done the past 2 years to change my life forever. Since I gave you my morning until 10:30am I really have control of my business and my life.

This is going to be the most productive year of my career in real estate. The first 4 years I did it the way those around me told me to do and I did have a business and life of chaos and stress! Now I have a steady flow of prospects, contacts, appointments, listings, negotiations and closings and a life of peace. Taking your advice last year to stop watching the news was just as important for me as learning to "be quite".

The numbers speak for themselves; 2 active listings to 31. I have already had more closings this year than the entire year before I met Andrew. I also had 3 closings in the last two weeks with 3 more scheduled this week.

If you are listening to the letter, you owe yourself the best...do what Andrew says and you WILL change your business and your life.

Thank you, thank you and thank you,
You raise me up!
