Dear Andrew,

Thank you so much for keeping me focused with enthusiasm for the last quarter of last year and the first 20 days of this year. So far this month I have taken 10 new listings (the most in one month for me so far!), put three under contract, am negotiating two and have closed one.

After closing out my best year ever in real estate in 2009; I cannot wait to come to work every morning to find those 3-4 people each day that will let me come out and see if I can help them get their home sold.

A far cry from where I was when we met 2 ½ years ago with 2 listings. And by the way I have 32 active listings today...look out 50...here I come.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.
