“It is 6:30 am and I am on the back deck sitting on the fire pit, watching the world awaken. I hear sounds that take me back to my childhood, sounds only heard in such a peaceful place. What a wonderful experience you have created here. I foresee many years of amazing things happening here, much joy and laughter and undoubtedly a tear or two. Not tears of sorrow though, tears of happiness, tears of awakening to unbelievable growth. It is an incredible journey and I thank you for inviting me to come along.
